

Community Group Discussion Questions - 9/15/24

ICEBREAKER

If you could re-live one day in your life, what day would you choose?

DISCUSSION QUESTIONS

1. How does Jacob's brutal honesty with his sons challenge our approach to difficult conversations? What can we learn from his approach?
2. Judah's transformation from a flawed individual to a leader in the lineage of Christ is a central theme. How does his story illustrate the power of repentance and change? How can we apply this to our own lives?
3. The message discussed the perversion of God's design for sexual intimacy. What steps can we take to align our understanding and practices with God's original intent?
4. Jacob's life earned him respect even from those who did not share his faith. How can we live in a way that earns respect from others, regardless of their beliefs?
5. Simeon and Levi's story shows the destructive power of uncontrolled anger. What strategies can we use to manage our anger in a way that honors God?
6. Judah received grace and mercy despite his past actions. How does understanding God's grace and mercy impact the way we treat ourselves and others?
