ICEBREAKER

If you were to instantly be given $1 million dollars, what would change about your life?

DISCUSSION QUESTIONS

1. How do you identify controlling behaviors in your relationships, and what steps can you take to address them?
2. The message mentioned that people-pleasing can become a form of idolatry. How can we balance being considerate of others' feelings without compromising our purpose?
3. How can we ensure that our self-worth and identity are rooted in God's purpose for us rather than in others' opinions?
4. The message suggested that not everyone close to us has our best interest in mind. How can we evaluate our relationships to ensure they align with God's purpose for us?
5. Discuss the role of forgiveness in dealing with controlling people. How can we forgive without allowing ourselves to be manipulated?
