ICEBREAKER

What restaurant do you eat at way too often?

DISCUSSION QUESTIONS

1. How does the example of Peter and John in Acts 3 (healing the beggar) illustrate the importance of addressing deeper needs rather than immediate wants?
2. In what ways can we strategically help someone in need without simply giving them what they want?
3. How can we avoid the trap of feeling like we need to be someone's savior, and instead point them to Jesus?
4. What are some signs that we might be taking on burdens that are not ours to carry, and how can we address this?
5. How can we balance the desire to help others with the need to allow them to experience the consequences of their actions?
